ADMINISTRATION

Our Policy Makers

"Tis but a shame to waste youth on the young", it is said. Would you thus have the youth of the world cynical, conservative, self-destructive and all-knowing as some with age so boastfully proclaim. Without the youth and dreams of the young, I wonder where we would be in our often viewed gloomy world of today. The theme so boldly chosen by the class of "83" readily asserts the aggressive ambitions of the next generation to take the stage of adult life. Oh, youth of today and generations of tomorrow, let us not forget that life is a celebration of knowledge and accomplishments to come. Who better should proclaim this than those who are ready to enter the adult world and who better should be thankful than those of us in that world."

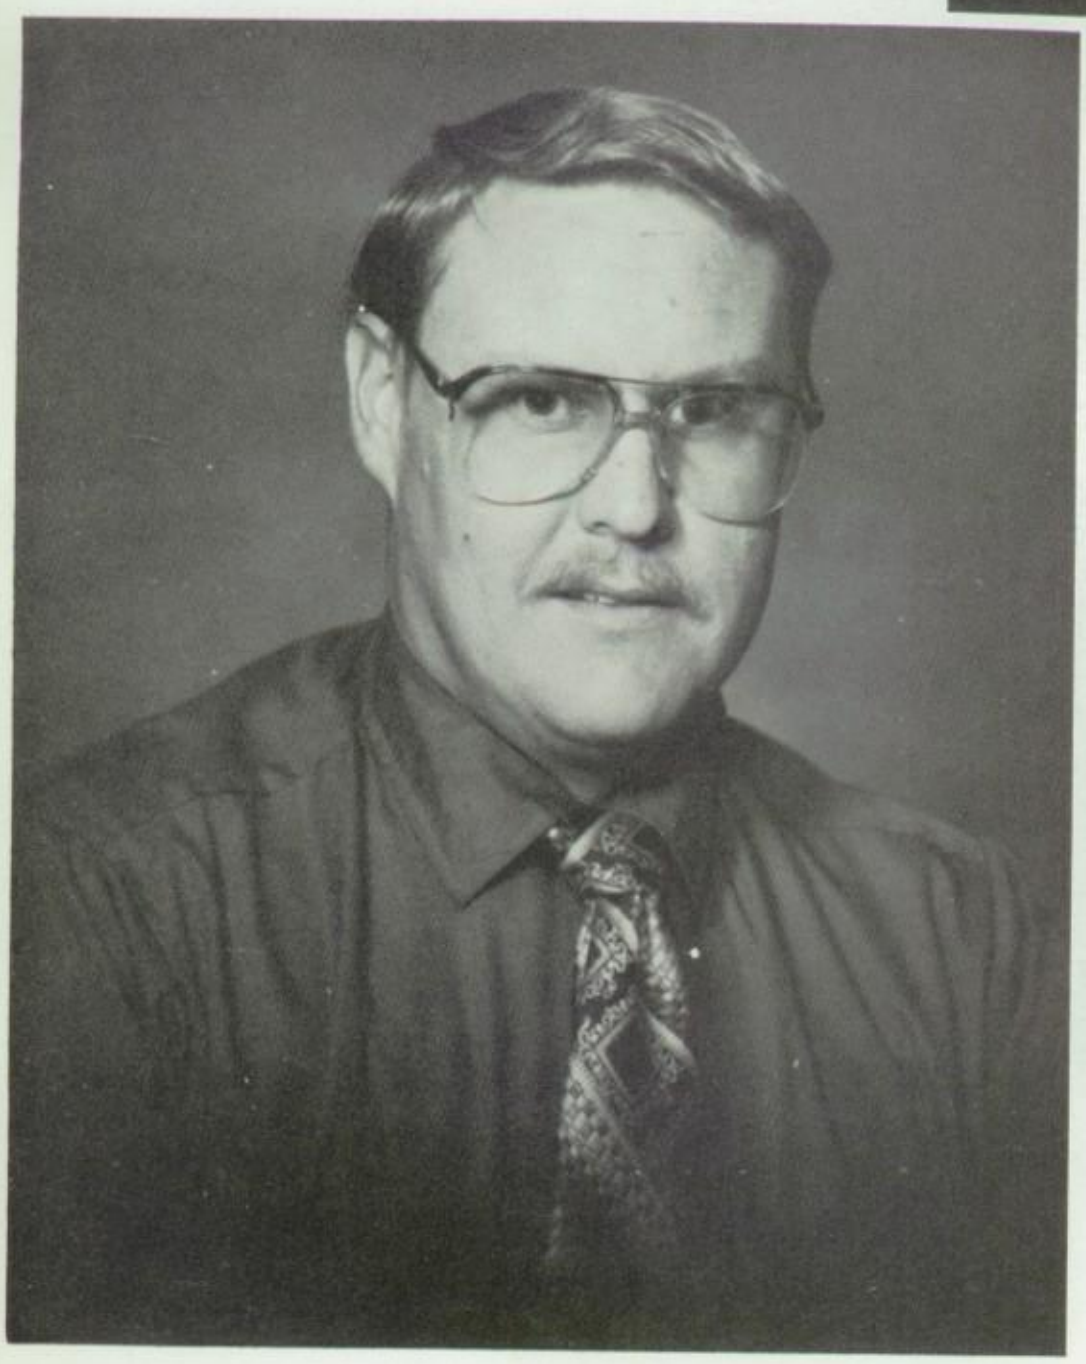
"1982-83 has been a year of change with the Freshman class joining us along with five teachers from the Junior High, Computer Science is being taught for the first time, and new policies on attendance and academic performance being implemented.

I feel we now have a more cohesive Student Body; and I think we are seeing the beginning of a new era.

You, the students, are the key to our success. Hard work and enthusiasm will assure our future."



"1982-83 has been a great year. Because we have gained another class by absorbing the 9th grade into our curriculum, we are more united and together than ever before in the new high school. The student body of Buhl High School is very fortunate educationally and will become a valuable asset in our society.

To the graduating class of 1983, I extend to you my best wishes."

In Appreciation . . .

Much preparation and thought have gone into producing this annual. We would like to thank the many people who have helped us in their own special way: The faculty for putting up with the numerous class interruptions; Mrs. Bishop for all of her patience with us and her sense of adventure with some of the captions on these pages; The Dean Kohntopp family for the candids of Shin; Mr. Clark for his talent on the cover and the advertising; Mitch Walden for taking pictures first semester; Sandie Wilde for all the effort she put forth on drawing up the pages and her wreath sales; and to the rest of the staff for their class efforts, advertising, wreath sales, and standing behind us on our ideas. With this, we present you the 1982-83 WAKAPA.

IF you read this walking down the hall never forget the effects of Alcohol
The Night you fed me Tickle Pink Bovi if your pickup could only think

I'd tell it of the time I drove you town while you were so fucked up that you'll never live it down
The old white pick up will never forget the time that your puke and the pickup met.
switching vehicles that fateful night saved my butt from an almost certain Bite of Grade A hamberger and now you know The The Pickups gone where old Pick ups go.

Brian

P.S. If you think for one minute
That this poem has n't a serious Line in it,
and if you think we won't party again
Then I believe that you're Sadly Mistaken

Because on some dark & cheerful night, we'll get fucked up till dawns early light

Good-bye Buhl High

MY FRIEND

You've shown me things
Within myself,
That I'd never seen before.
When "evil-doers"
Tempted me,
You quickly closed the door.
You've understood my feelings,
And through you,
I have, too;
And you have stood
Behind me,
In all I wished to do.
These things have meant
The world to me,
But soon our times will end,
But you have been
What I needed most,
For you have been my friend.

The Past Is My Heritage,
the Present Is My Responsibility,
the Future Is My Challenge.

Mike,
To a real cool, funny + this neat guy! This year has gone by fast. We need to get to see more football fights.
See ya around.

Mike
This has been a pretty good year and I have really enjoyed you when ever I got with you. I could see you just keeping your self out of trouble and that would be hard for you. Just remember me out so good luck and I'll see ya around this summer
